

How to Reach XIC?

XIC is located on the campus of St Xavier's College, Mahapalika Road, south Mumbai, walking distance from the rail terminus CST (formerly VT station). Enter the college gate and walk right in to the third quadrangle. The XIC offices, library and classroom block is located here.

XIC also has another campus 5 minutes walk away, at St Xavier's High School, Tilak Road. This venue contains the sound studio and lecture halls. Both venues may be reached from CST station, or (in the opposite direction) by crossing the busy traffic junction at Dhobi Talao, and either proceeding to Mahapalika Road (Xavier's College), or towards Tilak Road (Xavier's School).

If you are traveling by train on the Western Railway (WR), alight at Marine Lines station, walk down Princess St (now Shamaldas Gandhi Rd), turn right at the first traffic signal, and walk on to Dhobi Talao. You may either cross the busy junction at Dhobi Talao, or use the pedestrian subway (exit 6) in the direction of CST station/ Mahapalika Road. The journey takes about ten minutes.

If traveling by train on the Central Railway (CR), on either the main line or the harbour line, get off at CST station (formerly VT), cross the road or use the pedestrian underpass to Mahapalika Road. The college is five minutes' walk away.

If traveling by bus or car, come to Dhobi Talao, from where you can proceed either to the college or the high school. The following buses connect with both locations: 5, 9, 14, 28, 66, 68, 69, 101, 126, 133.

Taxis ply by meter and the passenger pays a surcharge on the fare shown. The minimum fare is Rs 19
